NSE Indices launches Nifty500 Multifactor MQVLv 50 Index

NSE's index services subsidiary, NSE Indices Limited today launched a new strategy index – Nifty500 Multifactor MQVLv 50.

The Nifty500 Multifactor MQVLv 50 Index aims to track the performance of a 50-stock portfolio selected based on a combination of momentum, quality, value and low volatility factors from the Nifty 500.

The momentum score for each company is determined based on its 6-month and 12-month price return, adjusted for volatility. The quality score for each company is determined based on return on equity (ROE), financial leverage (Debt/Equity Ratio) and earnings (EPS) growth variability analyzed during the previous 5 years. The value score of each company is determined based on the Earnings to Price ratio (E/P), Book Value to Price ratio (B/P), Sales to Price ratio (S/P) and Dividend Yield. Volatility is calculated as the standard deviation of daily price returns (log normal) for last one year.

The weight of each stock in the index is based on its composite factor score and is capped at the lower of 5% or 5 times its weight in the index based on free float market capitalization.

The base date for the index is April 01, 2005, and the base value is 1000. The index will be reconstituted and rebalanced on a semi-annual basis.

The new index is expected to act as a benchmark for asset managers and be a reference index tracked by passive funds in the form of Exchange Traded Funds (ETFs), index funds and structured products.
